Psalm 116:1-8

I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, *because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him. R

The cords of death entangled me; the grip of the grave took hold of me; * I came to grief and sorrow. Then I called upon the name of the Lord: * "O Lord, I pray you, save my life." R

Gracious is the Lord and righteous; * our God is full of compassion. The Lord watches over the innocent; * I was brought very low, and he helped me. R

Turn again to your rest, O my soul, * for the Lord has treated you well. For you have rescued my life from death, * my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling. R

St. Paul's Cathedral

A Day of Remembrance and Prayer for Peace

November 8, 2026

10:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist

Processional Hymn 575..... 'Let Streams of Living Justice'

An Act of Remembrance

Silence is kept.

The Peace Candle is Lit

Commemoration of the Faithful Departed

Father of all, we pray to you for those we love, but see no longer. Grant them your peace, let light perpetual shine upon them, and in your loving wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of your perfect will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Anthem ..... 'Let us Now Praise Famous Men' – Ralph Vaughan Williams, ed. Lionel Dakers (Text: Ecclesiasticus 44)

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renownèd for their power.

Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge. Such as found out musical tunes and re cited verses in writing: all these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who perished, as though they had never been. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth forevermore.

The flowers on the Book of Remembrance are given in commemoration of The Royal Regina Rifles, in memory of all those gone before, but not forgotten by Captain Valerie Cade.

The flowers in the Cathedral are given to the Glory of God & …. in loving memory of Ruth Scott, our mother, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt, cousin and friend. She is forever loved and very much missed by the Scott, Patterson and Roland families.

….in loving memory of all who gave so much, by the Blacker & Gliddon families.

WE PRAY FOR . . .

. . . . Moose Jaw, St. Aidan, The Rev. Dr. Cal Macfarlane and the Rev Deacon Arleen Champion; postulants Michelle Josefson and Nathan McLean, and all the worship leaders and preachers in the parish.

. . . . Pray for & give thanks for the fallen, praying for peace, and remembering those who continue to serve. Ask God to grant comfort to the grieving, give courage to service members, and inspire a renewed commitment to peace and justice

We wish to acknowledge that St. Paul's Cathedral sits in Treaty 4 Territory*, the traditional homeland of the Cree, Assiniboine, Saulteaux and Metis People. We do so with the deepest respect for the traditions and nations who have been in this place for thousands of years, and as a reminder to the Church that reconciliation is our most important task.*
